NOTES:

¶ Full membership is available to persons who have published original research in toxinology.

§ Associate membership is available for persons lacking original research publications in toxinology.

Student membership is only available to registered students and requires confirmation of student status from their institution, sent to the IST Secretary/Treasurer.

 Application for a new subscription to Toxicon at IST member rates must be made direct to Elsevier, together with evidence (such as a PayPal email receipt) that they have paid their annual IST dues. Elsevier will then invoice the member. Members who subscribed to Toxicon previously should receive an invoice from Elsevier, but must also provide Elsevier with evidence (such as a PayPal email receipt) that they have paid their annual IST dues for the current year. Note, membership dues must be paid directly to the Society, via the IST website, not via Elsevier. Only financial members of IST will be entitled to the discount subscription to Toxicon.

? If you do not know a current IST member prepared to nominate you please request the IST Secretary to arrange for nomination on your behalf.
